Award Ceremony for 96 hours of service to the poor.

On Wednesday, May 10, 2006, Kenneth Stepp received a pro bono award plaque from Volunteer Lawyers for Appalachian Kentucky Director Will Snyder for ninety six (96) hours of legal services donated to indigent and poor residents of the Kentucky Fifth Congressional District. With Kenneth Stepp and Will Snyder in the two pictures is Clay Circuit Family Court Judge Gene Clark. Judge Clark praised Kenneth Stepp at the award ceremony for donating attorney services to the poor.
