

Unpaid lawyers helping Conn's disabled victims recover benefits

Lexington Herald Leader

By John Rosenberg

Well, it's about time the feds caught up with lawyer Eric Conn, you say. I agree.

But a much larger saga has been playing out in recent months to the detriment of hundreds of disabled Eastern Kentuckians, all former clients of Conn. In May 2015, approximately 1,500 of these former clients received notices from the Social Security Administration that they would need to appear for a hearing before an administrative law judge to "redetermine" whether they were truly eligible for the benefits they received years ago when they were represented by Conn.

Read more here: <http://www.kentucky.com/opinion/op-ed/article71402157.html#storylink=cpy>

Last updated on April 13, 2016.

Print

Table of Contents

NEWS

News & publications

The news about recent activities for needed peoples.

More News

28 Mar 2024

Project Renew Paralegal Position Opening in Somerset

Project Renew Paralegal Position Opening in Somerset, KY ...

Continue Reading

21 Mar 2024

Pro Bono Volunteer Spotlight

The Eric C. Conn Social Security fraud resulted in thousands of low-income...

Continue Reading