

Don't re-victimize Eric Conn's clients. Social Security should allow time for them to get their records.

By Herald-Leader editorial board

September 26, 2018 07:02 AM

The Social Security Administration was slow to halt corruption within its own ranks, but has been eager to penalize Kentuckians who were victimized by their crooked, now-imprisoned lawyer, Eric Conn, and the Social Security judge who pocketed Conn's bribes.

A new round of redetermination hearings has begun for almost 2,000 former Conn clients. The SSA should delay the hearings until the outcome of two things are known:

- The discovery earlier this year of thousands of records at Conn's office that might help clients prove they were disabled when they were approved for benefits — if only they could gain access to their files.

Read more here:

<https://www.kentucky.com/opinion/editorials/article219000630.html#story...>

Last updated on September 26, 2018.

Print

Table of Contents

NEWS

News & publications

The news about recent activities for needed peoples.

More News

28 Mar 2024

Project Renew Paralegal Position Opening in Somerset

Project Renew Paralegal Position Opening in Somerset, KY ...

Continue Reading

21 Mar 2024

Pro Bono Volunteer Spotlight

The Eric C. Conn Social Security fraud resulted in thousands of low-income...

Continue Reading