Kyjustice.org is a great free legal resource

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY- MARCH 24 2022 Kentuckians now have access to a free, new and improved legal resource that provides answers to common legal questions, self-help forms, guides, and other tools to resolve life's important legal problems.

Kentucky's civil legal aid programs and the Kentucky Access to Justice Commission are proud to launch kyjustice.org. The website provides information in plain language to help individuals and families with legal issues involving housing, debt, public benefits, criminal record expungement, family law, and more.

At a press conference yesterday, Chief Justice John Minton, Jr. officially announced the launch of kyjustice.org adding, "The goal of kyjustice.org is to provide a central depositor, of free local help for individuals coaking local help. The website, which
