Thank you. One thing we know from our experience here is that when we all work together to promote financial literacy, we have real opportunities to improve the financial well-being of consumers across the country. Today, I look forward to discussing some of the partnerships the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau has forged across the country to deliver important financial resources and information to some of our nation's most vulnerable consumers. I also look forward to learning more from Secretary Perez, and other panelists, about the Department of Labor's work to ensure that millions of consumers who rely on professional advice to grow their retirement savings get advice that is in their best interest.
